Zoo animals really having a 'hullabazoo' of a time!

RESIDENTS at Whipsnade Zoo's new Hullabazoo Farm enjoyed a housewarming with a difference this week when the first visitors arrived to meet them and their keepers surprised them with special treats.

On Tuesday, Luke Moran (pictured centre), 3, got up-close with newborn chicks, cuddled a white fluffy bunny, and met two miniature donkeys.

He also helped the bunnies celebrate moving into their new home with a welcome party. Other animals taking up residence at Hullabazoo Farm were guinea pigs, ferrets, Gloucester old spot pigs and piglets, sheep, and lambs.

The zoo opened to the public yesterday and every element of the farm has been specially designed to allow visitors to get even closer to the animals.

They'll be able to explore the pygmy goats' walk-through home, groom ponies and join in with daily interactive talks and activities, including hands-on mini keeper sessions, animal handling, and storytelling, with keepers on hand to answer all of their farmyard questions.

Airport deal for 2.5k jobs hailed as 'brilliant' by MP

BY CARL MUNGAZI & TOM SHARP
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

NEWS that 2,500 jobs are to be created as a result of easyJet's new 10-year deal with Luton Airport has been hailed as a 'brilliant' and 'fantastic' development for the town.

Luton South MP Gavin Shuker said he was 'really looking forward' to the future whilst leader of Luton council, councillor Hazel Simmons said the authority was 'delighted' with the announcement.

The low-cost airline's group commercial director Catherine Lynn said cabin crew and flight crew positions would be among the new jobs created as a result of the deal.

However, she added that it was part-reliant on the Government giving the go-ahead for a proposed expansion at the airport which Communities Secretary Eric Pickles is currently reviewing.

New roles will also be created in industries connected to the airport as easyJet plans to increase its passenger numbers at Luton from four million to around nine million.

Mr Shuker said: "It's absolutely brilliant news that easyJet have chosen to expand here in Luton.

"EasyJet has a great relationship with the town; supporting great causes such as Love Luton and our beloved football club.

"Their investment shows us that they're serious about creating more jobs and growth here.

"I am really looking forward to what the future brings."

Cllr Simmons said: "We are delighted that one of Luton's most important companies is set to expand its operations in the town and will be creating hundreds of new jobs for local people.

"With job creation and business growth being two of our key priorities in this difficult economic climate, easyJet's announcement is fantastic news for the town."

The Bedfordshire Chamber of Commerce's chief executive, Cheryl Smart MBE, added that the deal would 'bring more jobs' and 'ticks the boxes as far as business is concerned'.

Some concerns have been raised that the deal will lead to higher noise levels for residents living near the site but the airport's managing director Glyn Jones said its impact would be managed.

Speaking at Monday's easyJet announcement, Ms Lynn said: "Directly we will be creating cabin and flight crew jobs.

"Indirectly, there will be jobs in our ground team, security, hotels, catering and transport.

"All of those areas are impacted by passenger growth and we feel these to be fantastic opportunities for the local community and surrounding areas."

What do you think of the news? Is it good or bad for Luton? Let us know at www.luton-dunstable.co.uk.

A statement from Luton on Sunday

LAST week Luton on Sunday carried an advertisement from The Ahmadiyya, which appeared on pages 2 and 3.

First, we would like to make it clear that this was an advertisement even though it was not clearly marked as such.

We would also like to make it clear that we completely disassociate ourselves from the content of the advertisement.

Luton on Sunday prides itself on the good relations it enjoys with the Muslim community in Luton and indeed all communities.

On Friday we met with representatives from the Muslim community to discuss the advertisement which we had accepted in good faith but now understand has caused offence to members of the Muslim community in Luton.

After the meeting the representatives issued a statement which said: "On behalf of the Muslims of Luton, we are grateful to Luton on Sunday for their understanding and for the positive co-operation shown in addressing this very sensitive issue relating to the fundamental beliefs of all Muslims."

PCC questioned over leak in Briggs inquiry

BY KATHRYN CAIN
 editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE and Crime Commissioner for Bedfordshire, Olly Martins, has been interviewed under criminal caution by a police watchdog as part of an investigation into the PCC divulging confidential information.

The Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) interviewed Mr Martins at its offices last week as part of its investigation into his disclosure of secret information regarding the death of Luton man Leon Briggs in November last year.

A spokeswoman for the IPCC said: "We have interviewed Mr Martins under criminal caution at our offices, the investigation is progressing well, and we have been keeping the family updated."

Mr Briggs, 39, died on November 4 after he was restrained and detained by Bedfordshire police officers and taken to Luton police station. His death is also being investigated by the IPCC.

Olly Martins has admitted sharing information about the case with a third party, who then disclosed it to others.

In February, Luton on Sunday

QUESTIONED: Olly Martins

reported that Mr Martins could face criminal charges for leaking secret information after the IPCC asked for the matter to be referred back to them to determine if his disclosure amounted to 'misconduct in public office'.

On December 1 last year the IPCC was alerted to the matter by Bedfordshire Police after they were informed of it by a member of the public.

The force was advised by the IPCC that it should send details of the complaint to Bedfordshire's Police and Crime Panel, as required by the rules governing complaints against PCCs.

The police and crime panel did not at that stage record it as a conduct matter or refer it to the IPCC.

The IPCC then asked the panel for information about a written warning it issued to Mr Martins in January at a private meeting and the material the panel considered before that action was taken.

On Tuesday, February 4 the IPCC wrote to the panel directing it to record as a conduct matter the unauthorised disclosure.

The panel then referred it to the IPCC, who determined that the matter needed to be independently investigated.

• FRIENDS and family of Leon Briggs were due to meet outside Luton Police Station yesterday afternoon to commemorate what would have been his 40th birthday.

The event was being organised by the Justice 4 Leon (J4L) group of campaigners who got together following his death last year.

A dance event has also been organised by J4L and it will take place at Charlie Browns Wine Bar on April 26.

Footie's first girl band is scoring for charity

BY TOM SHARP

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

WHILE Luton continue their march towards promotion, one of their fans is playing away at Championship side Yeovil Town as part of the UK's first football girl band.

Lewsey Farm resident Nicola O'Donnell, 27, and her three band mates are hoping to score big hit with their upcoming charity single.

Last year Nicola (pictured second from right) and three other girls were picked from more than 50 auditionees by Yeovil to form singing and dancing group Viva Pitch.

The girls, who perform at all of the club's home games and some away matches, recently appeared on Sky Sports' magazine show Soccer AM.

They are currently promoting a new single called 'Running' which they recorded in December to raise money for Prostate Cancer UK.

Nicola said: "When we first started it was a mixed reaction but we are slowly growing on people."

"Yeovil were after a different perspective on football and thought a girl band would be a great idea."

"With this song I think we can really raise our profile and also raise loads of cash for Prostate Cancer UK. I think it will be successful because it is a real summer tune.

GOAL: Viva Pitch release their charity single on April 27

"We have had over 70,000 hits on our YouTube channel and we are hoping we can drum up support and make some big money for the cause."

The group has made several public appearances away from the football pitch and are due to appear at Thorpe Park later this month.

The Football Association has also expressed an interest in the quartet singing the England team's official World Cup song – provided Running proves to be a success.

Nicola added: "The FA has been in touch regarding us singing the official World Cup song which is a fantastic opportunity."

"That could be amazing exposure for us and could mean we move onto bigger things in the future."

Running is available for pre-order on iTunes. Every sale will raise 79p for Prostate Cancer UK.

Sub appearance for Hatters' Jake

LUTON Town midfielder Jake Howells met with fans at Subway in George Street this week.

The 22-year-old was at the fast-food chain between 2.30pm and 4pm to celebrate Subway stores' community association with the Hatters and the company's next bursary award and scholarship.

Fans were able to try Howells' favourite sub while one lucky supporter was given a chance to win a signed Luton shirt via a free prize draw. In the 2012/13 season Luton Town partnered up with local Subway stores to support its youth department.

Money raised through the scheme helps to finance budding young footballers and give them access to coaches and facilities.

Local schools are asked to nominate children who could not normally afford a chance to go on the club's Talent Identification Programme.

Council shows its support for World Autism Day

STAFF at Luton council dressed up in their onesies to show their support for World Autism Awareness Day (WAAD).

On Thursday the authority's Autism

Spectrum Team made for a colourful ensemble as they posed outside the e-Learning centre in Sundon Park.

The council also lit up the Town Hall blue. The authority's team works in schools with 3-16 year-olds diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder, as well as offering advice to parents and carers.

Autism is a lifelong brain disorder that is often diagnosed in early childhood.

People with the condition suffer from different social and communication problems.

Burglar kicked out by a pensioner, 84

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN 84-YEAR-OLD man managed to kick out a burglar from his home who had been posing as a policeman.

The man had been at home last Thursday night in Pope's Court, Old Bedford Road, at around 10.30pm when the incident happened.

He had been in his bedroom for a short time when he went to his living room and found a man searching the room.

The 84-year-old challenged the man, who then told him he was a police officer.

However, the victim managed to remove the man from the building before alerting the emergency services.

The burglar left with the 84-year-old's jacket, car key, and bus pass.

Bedfordshire Police have described the intruder as a white man, 5'7" to 5'10" tall, in his late 20s with short black hair. He also spoke with a Luton accent.

Detective Constable Surfraz Hussain said: "The offender in this instance managed to get away with the victim's jacket, a car key and a bus pass."

"It is possible that the offender may have been watching the flat complex prior to gaining entry on Thursday night and I would urge anyone who has seen a man in the area prior to the offence or anyone who saw a man matching this description gaining access to the flats that night to come forward and assist with this inquiry."

He added: "As the nights are getting warmer I would also take this opportunity to remind residents to take extra home security measures to help protect their belongings. "Always make sure your doors are locked."

Shane Putney with Mrs Ingham

After having their rear windows expertly fitted by Kingsbourne, Mr & Mrs Ingham of Sedbury Close Luton had no hesitation choosing them again to replace the Front windows & door. Mrs Ingham explains "The two fitters did an excellent job and were very neat & tidy. If you want "A" rated products at realistic prices we would recommend everyone to give Kingsbourne a try".

Debut charity run for marathon man

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN who quit smoking following the death of a friend has decided to honour her memory by running his first marathon.

Paul Goode, 35, from Limbury, is taking part in the London Marathon on April 13 to increase awareness about organ donation and raise money for charity.

Mr Goode had been trying to give up smoking when his friend Ellis Natale died two years ago from cystic fibrosis.

This spurred him on to kick the habit a year later and start playing football as a means of keeping fit.

He then felt inspired by Ellis's death to enter the marathon and raise money

Paul Goode will be among thousands running in London next Sunday for the Cystic Fibrosis Trust and Keech Hospice.

He said: "When I began playing football it all went to my head and I was watching the marathon and thinking, how hard can it be?"

Mr Goode said he gave up drinking and other 'bad habits' as he prepared to honour the memory of his friend.

He added: "I had been trying to give up smoking for a while and I was thinking that I can't throw my life away and live for the weekend when Ellis would have given anything to be in my position."

'Sahara rain' and smog descends on town residents

VEHICLES in Luton this week fell victim to the 'Sahara rain', which left layers of dust on cars and vans across the town.

It was caused by sand and dust coming from the Sahara Desert which was transported in the air due to the wind direction and climate conditions. It resulted in a fine layer of dust being left on many vehicles when it rained.

During the week images emerged across the UK of vehicles covered in the thin film of sand, as smog also covered large parts of eastern England, London and the midlands.

The smog was caused by a mixture of the Sahara sand, and polluted air from mainland Europe which drifted north.

Mother overcomes adversity to graduate

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SINGLE mum-of-three has graduated after overcoming a nightmare two years in which her mother was diagnosed with cancer, her step-father died suddenly, and she needed an emergency operation on New Year's Day.

Samantha Fannin, 37, from Luton, graduated from the University of Bedfordshire and was awarded the Dean's Prize for achieving a distinction in the Advanced Diploma in Mental Health Nursing course.

During her traumatic two years she still managed to continue with her studies and community placements.

She was also the main carer for her mother.

Samantha said: "It's been a very tough two years, I put my entire life on hold, and looking back even I don't know how I did it.

"But, the university is incredibly geared up to support people in difficult circumstances like myself, and my son and cousin have supported me throughout too.

"Without all of the support I wouldn't have been able to do

Samantha graduated with a distinction after overcoming two tough years it. Throughout though I pictured today, and me walking out of that church with my gown on. That kept me going.

"I also wanted to be able to give my children an example to look up to and I was doubly focused on completing this course as I had to withdraw from a midwifery course here 10 years ago when my natural father died.

"Plus the fact I love working in mental health. I have an incredible passion for it, there is history of it with my family and I have always wanted to be in a position to care for and help others.

"My ambition for the future is to simply be able to say I've helped change someone's life for the better."

On Friday other students that were honoured included a former captain in the Pakistan Army and a student who was part of a nursing panel on the Keogh Mortality Review.

'Dismay and disappointment'

SIR – I write on behalf of the Preservation of Finality of Prophethood Forum (PFPF) representing all the 22 Mosques in Luton to express our dismay and disappointment at your two-page feature headed "The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community".

We understand that this was a paid advertisement rather than an LoS article, though the majority of people have viewed this as an article printed by the paper. The advertisement makes some false claims not least of the fact that Ahmadiyya community rejects the fundamental beliefs of Muslims in that the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him, pbuh) is the last and final Messenger of God. This message is relayed in the Holy Quran and echoed by the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). By not accepting this basic, but important principle, the Ahmadiyya community has decided to reside outside the falls of Islam and thus the Muslim community. This fact is acknowledged by a number of countries around the world where the Ahmadiyya are given full rights as a minority group, but not the status of belonging to the Muslim community (as clearly they reject the basic fabric of this). There are a number of other anomalies such as claiming to have "tens of millions" followers and "leading Islamic organisation". There is no evidence of either claim.

We feel it is wrong for any group or individual to misrepresent another community's faith and beliefs. The Ahmadiyya

Worried about bus passes

SIR – I was concerned when I saw the story in last week's edition of Luton on Sunday (Free bus travel is reduced for OAPs, March 30) about free bus travel being changed for old age pensioners and disabled people.

Saying they can't travel until 9.30am and it stops at 11pm is wrong for pensioners and people who are disabled.

These people might have early appointments with doctors, dentists or perhaps at hospitals.

If this is the case why don't they ask them to pay a fee like 20p or 50p with these passes.

Pensioners go into town early to pay their bills and do their shopping.

Some or all of them cannot afford taxis or are unable to get their families to run them about.

I know the council has to save money but I find this a joke.

I really hope that people from the council read this letter.

I know that this financial situation is down to the government but I have to say that I find them a joke to.

I was on the bus earlier this week and was talking to someone who is from the council.

He said that it was only Luton that it is doing this with buses.

Is that correct?

S Fensome
Marsh Farm

Now forgive me if I'm wrong, but as a percentage of my road tax, fuel tax, council tax and town centre parking costs also go towards the upkeep of Luton's roads, why are they in such a degraded state?

The more affluent areas are well maintained but has anyone from the council's highways department driven or cycled through any of Luton's housing estates lately?

So stop wasting our money on vanity projects and sort the roads out.

Alan Copperson
Luton

UKIP does not ignore facts

SIR – In response to Nick Murray (LoS Letters, March 30) who states that UKIP ignores the facts. This is not the case.

The reports that say immigrants contribute more to our society than they take out have been proved to be selective, flawed and untruthful. Over recent years Migration Watch has shown the true cost to us of immigration has been £140 billion.

Our government's own suspect immigration figures show massive increases over years with the population swelling by millions. Unless Nick Murray has changed the laws of mathematics the numbers simply cannot add up. The NHS will collapse if an unknown, open ended and ever increasing number of people continue to be allowed to draw on the limited resources.

Martin Newman
Tennyson Road, Luton

It's time to sort out the roads

SIR – I work in an office on a residential street in Luton. During the day, when most of the residents are at work, the street has space for plenty of vehicles but cannot be used for long term parking (£1.80 for 2 hours is the current rate).

When I enquired about a 9-5 parking permit I was told I could have one if I was willing to pay £400 a year.

When I asked where the £400 went, I was told it's used for the upkeep of Luton's roads.

community is welcome, in our opinion, to share their beliefs as they feel right. However, it is not correct that one should claim to be something when they are openly rejecting the same. For Muslims, the fundamental principle is belief in the one God and that of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) as being the last and final of the Messengers of God. One belongs to the Muslim community when one accepts and adheres to the fundamental beliefs and not otherwise.

Beware of chancellors who are bearing gifts

FORTY years ago Chinese leader Chou En Lai was asked if he thought the French Revolution (1789) was a success. Chou En Lai said it was too soon to tell. Now that may be a bit extreme but it is often the case that it takes a while to judge whether Governments, and their policies, have been a success or failure.

Policies that are popular and populist one day can seem in hindsight a total disaster. For example all of the policies of the Thatcher Governments. It is also fairly normal for chancellors' budgets to look good one day and not so good down the line, or vice versa. That is why they are only truly judged after many years and with hindsight.

Such may be the case with the latest budget from George Osborne and in particular the part regarding pensions. Yes, I have reached the age when I start taking a keener interest in such matters. On the surface the decision to allow people to do what they will with their private pension pot looks a good idea. It's our money so why should we not be able to spend it as we like?

Part of the answer to that is that it is not all our own money as employers certainly make a decent contribution. That aside Osborne made it clear that it is up to people themselves on whether they turn their pot into a pension or blow it all on a Maserati. They are responsible people and should be treated as such. Fine, except who looks after them once they have blown it? And if that is ok why are people and firms being forced to pay into a pension? Surely they should be responsible enough to save for their own old age without the Government forcing their hand? Alas not. So having been made to take out a private pension, we now do not need to turn it into a pension.

This looks like mixed up thinking. Or maybe a cold calculation on winning a few votes at the cost of future misery and greater expense to the state. And talking of costs, the Government also sees a tax windfall, as any money taken out will be taxed as earnings.

The other problem with this new wheeze is that it yet again destroys the idea of universality, something this Government seems to singularly hate.

By this I mean that the pension providers make their judgements partly on the fact that some people will live and enjoy a long retirement and some will not. And this can be properly calculated by using national data. Not any more, so the pensions provided to those who still want them are likely to be smaller.

Smashing the pension regulations looks like a win-win today but in 10 years could be a lose-lose and we will all be asking: how did we get here?

ONE thing best to avoid if you are in education is praise from Michael Gove.

The education secretary was fulsome in his praise of the Barnfield Federation but is being very quiet on the mess the federation is now in.

He also visited Bedford Free School, admittedly under the cover of darkness, which is not doing quite so well as he hoped. And after publicly saying he wants state schools to be more like private schools, I would just say not if you want the kids to do well at uni, as state educated students perform better.

Breakthrough pain relief for sciatica sufferers

By Sam Potter

IF YOU suffer from sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched sciatica nerve.

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Corrective Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Corrective Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of sciatica pain relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain.

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your sciatica and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the sciatica pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg.

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Your invitation for a comprehensive consultation and examination to pinpoint the cause of your sciatica...

Luton on Sunday has teamed up with the spine therapy specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre, to help readers find relief from their persistent back and sciatic pain.

All you have to do to receive a thorough diagnostic examination with the most advanced technology in the world and a comprehensive easy to understand report on your state of health is call 01234 340317.

Mention this article (CODE: LOS37SCID1) and Peter will happily reduce his usual consultation fee of £195 to just £37. But hurry, due to obvious reasons – this is a time limited offer – with only 100 reader consultations available at this exclusively discounted rate.

My advice, don't suffer a moment longer...

Find out if Non-Surgical Corrective Spinal Care can help you, book a consultation with Peter and his team now by calling 01234 340317, they are waiting to take your call today.

You can even call on the weekend and leave a message on their answer machine to secure your spot as they promise to return all calls; and during the week they are very busy, so if they don't pick up straight away do leave a message.

Sciatica Relief Expert Peter Olsson, says: In 9 years of practice, I've never seen a treatment as effective as Non-Surgical Corrective Spinal Care for patients with sciatica or lower back pain

Call 01234 340317 NOW and leave a message, if it's the weekend or the line is busy - they will get back to you as soon as they can. So call now on 01234 340317 and quote this special discount code: LOS37SCID1

Houses in Lewsey given top 50 award

A NEW affordable housing development in Lewsey has been recognised as being one of the best in the UK.

Property magazine Inside Housing listed the former Unicorn Pub development in Lewsey in the Top 50 Affordable Housing Developments for 2014.

The £2 million project features 12 new homes and two specially designed wheelchair accessible bungalows that are on Regis Road and Wheatfield Road. Judges said the houses provided 'a positive outlook for the community'.

Teen cut in 'nasty' pub bottle attack

BY CARL MUNAZI

carl.munazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN 18-YEAR-OLD suffered a near-fatal head injury after being slashed with a broken bottle.

He was attacked in the toilets of the White Horse pub in High Street North, Dunstable, in the early hours of Sunday, March 30 at around 2.45am.

The teenager's friend had been arguing with another man when he turned around to see what was going on.

But as he did so he was hit on the forehead with a bottle which then broke on impact.

The assailant then slashed the 18-year-old on the side of the head with the broken glass, which caused a large cut, before fleeing the scene.

The teenager was taken to the Luton and Dunstable Hospital where he received 12 stitches to his wound.

Detectives are in the process of checking CCTV but are keen to speak with members of the public who were in the pub on Saturday night/Sunday morning and may have seen the assault taking place.

Detective Constable James Wildman said: "This was an appalling attack which has left the victim with a very nasty injury to the side of his head."

"If the wound had been just a few millimetres lower then it would have hit a main artery which could have proved to be fatal."

Anyone with information can call Bedfordshire Police on 101.

New barnets go wild in the jungle

HAIRDRESSING students from Luton and the surrounding areas gathered to show off their skills in Barnfield College's Hair Showcase earlier this week.

On Monday stylists produced barnets inspired by the animal theme of 'Go Wild in the Jungle'.

Models walked down the jungle catwalk sporting styles based on elephants, zebras, spiders, snakes, tigers, leopards, butterflies, and a variety of exotic birds. The model make-overs

The students were supported by their friends, families and employers.

Awards were also presented to Level 2 and 3 full-time students and apprentices for skill, dedication, overcoming challenges, attendance and positivity.

Specials ready to go out and about

BEDFORDSHIRE Police's special constables will be hitting the beat this weekend in an effort to encourage others to join their ranks.

Currently, there are 203 Specials in the county but both Chief Constable Colette Paul and PCC Oily Martins are hoping to see the numbers increase to 330 by this time next year.

Over the weekend the specials will join regular officers on the beat and take part in rave prevention patrols as well as doing other duties.

Flasher's indecent act in front of nan

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PERVERT exposed himself to a grandmother and her grandchildren before committing an indecent act.

The incident, details of which have just emerged, happened on Sunday, March 23 at around 11.30am in People's Park in Havelock Road, Luton.

The 66-year-old grandmother had been watching her grandchildren, aged four and six, as they played when a man walked towards the swings.

He sat down and began to commit an indecent act before leaving the scene in a car.

Bedfordshire Police have described the man as being black, 5ft 10 tall, in his mid-twenties with short black curly hair.

He was wearing navy track-suit bottoms and a navy body warmer. Detectives said the vehicle description was unknown.

The officer in charge of this investigation, PC Olyver Tomlinson, is keen to trace anyone else who may have been subjected to this type of behaviour or anyone who can help identify the man from the description given.

Anyone with information relating to this incident can contact PC Tomlinson, in confidence, at Luton Police Station, on 01582 394087, or the police on 101.

You can also text information to 07786 200011 or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Volunteering turned low Paul's life around

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN who lost seven stone and landed his first job after 10 years has thanked a volunteering scheme for transforming his life.

Paul Turvey, 49, from Dallow, said he had been 'at the lowest point of his life' when he found himself unemployed, demotivated, and weighing more than 15 stone at the start of last year.

He was suffering from depression and low self-esteem when he contacted Luton council about its volunteering scheme.

After getting a role at the Luton Foodbank he then managed to secure a permanent position there as a warehouse operative and van driver.

Mr Turvey said: "It had been almost 10 years since I had a job. I had chronically low self-esteem, I'd forgotten what it was like to exercise and spent my days at home eating, watching TV and feeling sorry for myself."

With his depression getting worse by the day he tried to change his situation by getting in touch with the council regarding volunteering opportunities.

The authority has been running its volunteer programme since 2011 as a way of giving residents an opportunity to gain valuable experience while giving something back to the community.

Mr Turvey said: "I knew I had the skills to do a number of the roles they talked to me about. Gardening, delivering meals to elderly people and organising stalls and events at community centres particularly appealed to me.

"I was finally feeling optimistic about things and was committed to turning my life around."

Mr Turvey began by working four hours each week - helping prepare and organise food parcels for some of Luton's poorest families.

After a period of time he was given more responsibilities, including opening and closing the Foodbank before and after his shifts.

He then got a full-time post at the Foodbank and is now down to eight stone and feeling more confident about his future, he said.

He added: "The volunteer scheme is amazing. I can't speak highly enough of it."

"I actually hand out flyers to people about it as I want others to benefit from it the way I have. Anyone who is in a similar situation to what I was in should give it a go. Just have a look to see what's available."

"I wouldn't be here if it wasn't for volunteering. It has changed my life."

CHEERS: Ian Payne (right) was honoured at a ceremony

Pub firm boss in top prize scoop

THE head of a Luton-based pub company has been given the top accolade at an awards evening.

Stonegate Pub Company chairman, Ian Payne, has been crowned the Business Leader of the Year at the Publican Awards 2014.

The firm manages 625 public houses, including brands such as Yates and Missoula.

Mr Payne said the award was 'a reflection of how hard everyone has worked'.

Robbery victim had

CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

MONEY and a gold chain were taken in a robbery that left a man with a suspected broken nose, chipped teeth, and facial bruising.

It took place in Biscot Road at around 10.10pm when the 44-year-old victim went over to a man who was pestering a woman in the street.

The man spoke with the victim and asked for money before becoming aggressive.

As the 44-year-old turned away he was hit over the head with an unknown object, before the assailant then took his gold chain and a small amount of cash.

The victim was knocked unconscious and fell to the ground, but woke a few minutes later.

Police said he remembered being pulled from the middle of the road to safety by a black man who also protected him from further assault.

Detective Constable David Brecknock said the victim's injuries could have been worse if the 'good samaritan' had not intervened.

Police have arrested and bailed a 20-year-old man in connection with the attack which happened last week on March 29.

DC Brecknock added: "Although officers have arrested a 20-year-old man in connection with this incident we still need to trace the woman who was standing on Biscot Road, between Studley Road and Malzeard Road, and also the good samaritan who helped the victim."

Fans go wild for One Direction

HUNDREDS of fans gathered outside Cardington Hangars this week desperate to catch a glimpse of their boy band heroes One Direction. Young girls and boys - and a few mums too - brought signs declaring their love for Niall, Harry, Zayn, Liam and Louis and waited up to six hours to see them. One lucky fan managed to grab a selfie with Harry Styles after he got out of the car to speak to the crowd.

Man who swallowed £200k drugs is jailed

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN arrested at Luton Airport after swallowing 78 packages of high-purity cocaine worth around £200,000 has been jailed for five years.

Border Force officers at the airport apprehended Andrew Chitedze, 48, of Kerridge Court, Dalston, on January 25 as he arrived back into the UK on a flight from Argentina, via Madrid.

Chitedze claimed to have been over there to visit an uncle but a body scan revealed a number of suspicious packages contained within his abdomen.

He admitted to Border Force officers that he had swallowed the packages.

Forensic tests later revealed that they contained over one kilo of high-purity cocaine, which if cut and sold on the streets in the UK would have had an estimated value of around £200,000.

Chitedze pleaded guilty to drug importation charges.

At a hearing at Isleworth Crown Court on March 28 he was sentenced to five years in prison.

Border Force regional director Phillip Holliday said: "This case shows the lengths smugglers will go to in their attempts to bring class A drugs into the UK. Those who swallow packages like this are risking their lives."

"Border Force officers are on the front line of the fight to stop illegal drugs like cocaine making it onto the UK's streets."

Plans to double size of Special Constabulary

THIS is National Specials Weekend and I'll be out and about around the county with some very special people who freely give a considerable amount of their time to keep us safe.

Whether it is policing the night time economy or a Hatters' match, rave prevention patrols or executing warrants, this weekend as every weekend special constables will be working alongside their full-time equivalents to keep our county safe.

Whoever said that volunteering is the ultimate exercise in democracy was spot on.

"You vote in elections once a year," they said, "but when you volunteer, you vote every day about the kind of community you want to live in."

This describes perfectly our Special Constables who make a tremendous difference to the lives of those who live and work in our towns and villages.

So this weekend I'll be accompanying some of them on their patrols, acknowledging their dedication and saying a heartfelt 'Thank you'.

I also hope that this annual celebration of what they do will encourage others to join them in this important part of the policing family.

We are currently recruiting

Guest columnist, Police and Crime Commissioner Ollie Martins, on the role of Specials and plans to increase the number of recruits for more Specials to serve alongside regular police officers in Bedfordshire and I'm keen to help swell their ranks.

Although the Specials commit their own time to these duties, funding has to be found to pay for such necessities as uniforms and training.

Last year I allocated £115k from my Community Safety Fund to finance 46 more officers who have focused on rural crime, providing 17,394 hours of additional policing.

Bedfordshire Police has worked hard to devise a more flexible training regime to allow early deployment of the newly recruited officers – with impressive and tangible results.

These 17,394 hours of additional policing have resulted in 195 arrests (whose offences included aggravated burglary, robbery, hare coursing and drug trafficking) plus the execution of 287 warrants, instigated 231 breath tests (18 positive) and seized 33 vehicles.

This, clearly, is money well spent – and I hope to provide further funding support this year as we aim to double the size of our special constabulary.

And, yes, they give their time and skills for no financial reward.

But volunteering is not a one-way street. The training and work they do brings them new skills and huge opportunities for personal development along with new levels of confidence.

If this sounds just up your street and you'd like to contribute to public safety and protection in this way, please go to: http://www.bedfordshire.police.uk/about_us/careers/special_constables.aspx for details of how to apply.

It could result in one of the most rewarding decisions you'll ever make – for you and for your neighbourhood.

New Captain America movie is best yet from the Marvel Comics' stable

FILM REVIEW

CAPTAIN AMERICA – WINTER SOLDIER

In various cinemas
Out now

THIS week our resident film expert GAVIN MILLER casts his critical eye on the next instalment of Marvel Comics' Captain America series.

This is arguably the best movie to come from Marvel yet – yes, even better than Avengers Assemble.

After the perfectly watchable – but more-of-the-same – release of Thor: The Dark World last year, Chris Evans makes sure the Marvel superhero juggernaut continues well on track into its third phase with a smart and exhilarating second standalone outing for Captain America.

After the events of New York, Steve Rogers – the super-powered, shield-wielding man that is Cap Am – is still struggling to embrace his role in the modern world, particularly exasperated by the questionable tactics of Nick Fury (Samuel L Jackson) and the SHIELD agency.

Can he trust Fury? Can he trust Fury's boss Alexander Pierce (Robert Redford)? Can he trust top agent Brock 'Crossbones' Rumlow (Frank Grillo)?

Can he even trust Avengers team member Black Widow (Scarlett Johansson)?

All these questions become answered in a cleverly subversive plot that takes this above-the-average superhero movie – and punches this towards the top of the genre ladder with the likes of Nolan's Batman trilogy.

With some great action set-pieces, nice – but not over-cooked – comedic touches, and a few genuine emotive moments, this sequel really does satisfy.

The story centres on the attempts of SHIELD to introduce controversial surveillance heli-carriers in the sky to watch our every move in an attempt to prevent crime before it happens.

Throw in the addition of ally Sam 'Falcon' Wilson (Anthony Mackie) and maniacal new arch-nemesis in the form of The Winter Soldier (Sebastian Stan), then you've got A) a bloomin' good movie, and B) a hard film to review without significant plot spoilers.

If it wasn't for some of the film's clever work coming undone in the slightly weaker (but still noteworthy) 'all-guns blazing' final third – this would have undoubtedly been a five-star movie.

As it stands this doesn't only set up the Marvel canon nicely for the next Avengers film Age of Ultron – but is also a great movie for neutral film-goers too.

Sooty's throwing a party to celebrate 66 years in showbiz

THEATRE

The Grove Theatre

Wednesday, 11am & 2.30pm

IZZY wizzy, let's get busy! Children's favourite Sooty is at the Grove Theatre this Wednesday.

Prepare for fun, magic and oodles of laughter as The Sooty Show heads into Dunstable direct from CITV.

That's right, everybody's favourite bear will be packing his bags and visiting the theatre to perform a show that will delight the whole family.

Joining Sooty will be Sweep, Soo, and Sooty's TV partner Richard Cadell.

Boy will Richard have his hands full as he attempts to keep Sooty out of trouble.

Sooty is celebrating his 66th year in show business by throwing a birthday party but it seems things are not exactly going to plan.

Sooty and Sweep are getting messy baking the birthday cake in the kitchen whilst Soo cannot seem to decide which dress to wear.

The special guests have been invited and are on their way. Will Sooty and his gang be ready in time?

The Sooty Show is based on the long-running show which originally began in 1948 and has lasted many decades.

Sooty's first partner was the legend Harry Corbett who, together, made a dynamic duo.

Harry passed the legacy of Sooty onto his son Matthew who continued to make the show up until 1989.

Since then, Richard Cadell has joined the show to become Sooty's newest partner.

Tickets are £10 for children and £12 for adults. Family tickets (2 adults and 2 children) are £38. Call 01582 602080 to book.

Tips for buyers to get acquainted with a new area when moving

GETTING the home of your dreams may seem a tall order - but when it comes to location, getting better acquainted with your new area is a must.

How long will the drive into work take, is it far to walk to the nearest shops, is there an open space for dog walkers, and where is the local hospital?

These are some of the many questions buyers may often overlook when caught up in the home buying process.

But there are many important elements that all fit into the complex puzzle of moving house, say estate agents Harrison Murray.

The demands of modern day life lead some people to look at their home/worklife-balance, opting either to move to a larger home, be closer to work or family, or choose a quieter location.

Whatever the reasons for moving to a new area, don't let the excitement of a new home detract from the importance of exploring your new surroundings.

Harrison Murray has some tips on what to bear in mind when weighing up whether to buy a home in a particular area:

* Make your first stop the Internet. A wealth of information about the local housing market and the local area is available at your fingertips.

* Look at the property in local newspapers in areas where you are interested in living. This will give you a good idea of prices in the area, as well as information on local clubs or groups.

Use our tips if you're moving to a new house like this at Lincars, Luton

* Once you have highlighted an area, visit it a few times and spend some time driving around the surrounding towns and villages to get a feel for the bigger picture.

* Try driving your route to work / school to get an idea of the journey and how long it will take.

* Depending on their age, children may not be completely receptive to moving away from friends, so take them on a tour - pointing out schools, local parks and opportunities for social activities.

* Find out about services on your doorstep - from doctors and dentists to the post office, library - and why not grab a few menus from the local takeaways.

* If you have pets, it may be worth finding a reputable boarding kennel/cattery in your new area to take care of them for a day or two during the move to alleviate any stress.

* When choosing an agent, ensure that they are members of the National Association of Estate Agents (NAEA) and arm yourself with any further questions about the local market or area you are not able to find the answer to. A good estate agency will know the area like the back of their hand.

* Head of estate agency for Harrison Murray and The Nottingham, Su Snaithe said: "For many people, moving home can be an exciting yet at the same time rather daunting experience - particularly if it is to a brand new area."

* "However, if you do your homework properly you can ensure your new home suits the whole family. We are often told location, location, location is key - but becoming acquainted with a particular area is equally important."

PRESS RELEASE

FEBRUARY 2014

Local agent reaches milestone at Connells

Local estate agent Vinny Diruberto is celebrating his tenth year working at Connells in Dunstable.

Vinny has been working at Connells for 14 years and has experienced the highs and lows of the property market. With a decade spent in and around Dunstable, Vinny is very well placed to help advise buyers and sellers looking to take their first or next step on the property ladder.

"I am delighted to have been working in the Dunstable office for ten years now," says Vinny. "We have a great team here in the office; it's really exciting to be running a branch that is enjoying the successes of a rejuvenated property market. 2014 has been a very busy time in the housing market and we expect even more activity in the coming months."

The local property market has seen a huge increase in interest from buyers since the start of 2014. Connells Dunstable office has continued to thrive and Vinny is optimistic that this year will see the local property market grow in strength with more new homes sites being built in the town.

"There is a lot of positivity surrounding the local housing market at the moment," continues Vinny. "Buyers are out in force and the supply of property is struggling to keep up with demand. We have a current new build site in East Dunstable that will be coming to the market in a few weeks time which is brilliant for the area because of the lack of housing stock in Dunstable at present.

"We've had properties selling in days and weeks once they've gone onto the market. Buyers are keen to snap up properties very quickly making it a brilliant time to get in touch with us if you are thinking of selling," says Vinny.

If you have a property to sell and would like to arrange a free market appraisal with Connells, then call the Dunstable branch on 01582 661 265 or email: dunstable@connells.co.uk

More rental properties needed, says Connells

Demand for rental accommodation is outstripping supply, according to local letting agency Connells in Luton.

The branch has recorded an increasing number of individuals, couples and families looking for homes to rent since the start of the year but not enough rental properties to fulfil demand.

"Over the last few years, we've seen growing demand for rental property, in some part due to ongoing difficulties in the first-time buyer market," says Justin Walters, Lettings Manager for Connells. "These latest figures from Rightmove show that demand for good quality rental homes is outstripping supply. We need more properties to let in order to keep pace with the number of tenants in the market. This first quarter to 2014 has been the busiest yet for Connells Luton and we urgently need more properties."

"Landlords and buy to let investors should consider extending their rental portfolio to take advantage of high demand in the market" says Justin. "We require a broad range of rental properties at the moment for prospective tenants so we are urging landlords with properties to let to get in touch and see if we can match them with one of our waiting tenants." If you have a property to let or are looking for rental accommodation, please contact Connells Lettings on 01582 481369 or email: lutonlet@connells.co.uk

PROMOTION jitters looked to have got the better of Luton Town on a difficult afternoon but a Cameron McGeehan header again saw them over the line in a 1-0 win over Aldershot at Kenilworth Road.

Just as against Chester a fortnight ago, the Hatters made hard work of a plucky visiting outfit. Defender Jaydon Gibbs' own goal midway through the first half was wrongly chalked off for offside as Luton searched for the opener.

And with the game meandering towards an uninspiring result, substitute Jake Howells' cross caught out keeper Glenn Morris and McGeehan was on hand to force his first Luton goal in the 85th minute.

The Shots were certainly not overawed by their trip to the league leaders but created little as they attempted to keep out the hosts.

As they have done so often, Luton eventually found the answer and the reaction was as memorable as the game sadly was not.

Cambridge's 3-1 win over Southport keeps the title race alive for another game at least but with all-but relegated Tamworth next up at Kenilworth Road, the inevitable inches closer.

After a close shave at Dartford in midweek, Town were looking to stamp their authority on another relegation struggler.

The Shots have won just three Skrill Premier games since the turn of the year, thus leaving them in the mire at the foot of the table.

They were further hampered by the loss of 20-goal striker, Brett Williams, missing through suspension.

There was just one change for Luton which saw Luke Rooney replace Howells as the Hatters looked to steamroll their way to another three points. It was far from that easy though.

Former Town defender Chris Coyne had called for a cauldron of an atmosphere from the Kenilworth Road faithful via Twitter and they duly obliged.

The 8500-plus home fans roared on a vibrant Hatters outfit, as the home side took the fight to Aldershot. Rooney looked industrious in the hole behind the two frontmen while McGeehan and Tuesday's goal hero Pelly Ruddock-Mpanzu drove Town forward with pomp and purpose.

And with twenty minutes gone, they thought they had the opener.

Rooney's delicate through-ball found Paul Benson on the charge and with keeper Morris in no-man's land and defender Gibbs on the stretch, the ball looped into the air and into the net. However, an offside flag spared the shaky

LUTON RFC responded in emphatic fashion this weekend to the disappointment of losing to their London 1 North promotion rivals, Westcliff, last Saturday by beating Diss 61-5 on the road.

Nine tries were scored by Luton, with just one recorded by their hosts, with Rik Hobbs kicking eight out of a possible nine conversions on offer.

Luton's Backs Coach Nick Rhodes was not at the game as he was recovering from minor surgery, but he was buoyed by the news that he will now be purchasing new boots for both Tom Mahendren and Steve Ellis, as a bonus for scoring hat-tricks.

"I'm glad the boys have bounced back," said Rhodes. "As you can imagine, we were pretty disappointed to lose last weekend, this is no less than the lads deserve".

Ellis was in jubilant mood following his side's points-fest. "We were clinical, the backs were either carving holes straight through them, or moving it quickly down the wings, they couldn't cope with us," he said.

"It was disheartening to lose, as we did, to Westcliff last weekend, but we've Eton Manor next weekend, and they're top, so it will be nice to get one over on them."

Luton took just three minutes to score their first try, as Jake Hobbs opened the account, quickly followed by Mahendren's first of the afternoon six minutes later, both converted by Hobbs.

Ellis got the first of his try-haul on thirteen minutes, and Mahendren had secured the league bonus point with twenty minutes on the clock, as Hobbs missed the conversion, his only one off target all afternoon.

There was no respite for Diss in the second half, with Mahendren scoring his third try on 43 minutes, followed by two tries by Ellis on 46 and 50 minutes to secure his hat-trick, and a new pair of boots from his coach. Mahendren's fourth was just after the hour, and completed the rout for Luton, 61-5.

DUNSTABLIANS beat Rushden & Higham 38-5 in their last home of the season in Midlands 2 East South.

"We had them up front," said Dees' prop Simon George. "We snuffed them out."

Dees ran in six tries on the afternoon, with Simon Calder, Aaron White, Stuart Hall, Joe Murphy and Dwayne Hughes-Brand all crossing with Murphy kicking four conversions.

STOCKWOOD PARK lost 35-5 to table-topping Biggleswade, their opponents in the County Cup Final. A Tom Childs try was all they had to show for their efforts, against a clinical Biggleswade side that made their possession count in the Midlands 3 East South clash.

"We had more of the ball, but they made what little possession they had count," said Stockwood Number 8 Ben Griffin.

COMING TOGETHER: Paul Benson clips past visiting keeper Glenn Morris

Hatters move closer still

Shots' blushes. Three quick-fire offsides later and Town were still no nearer to finding the net. For the away side, counter-attacking football was inevitably the order of the day. Fraser Franks' yellow card for a hefty challenge on Adam Mekki drew the Shots' best opportunity in the 37th minute.

Fortunately, Mekki's resultant 20-yard free-kick flew harmlessly into the Kenilworth Road End. The visitors' outstanding contributor so far was unsurprisingly Morris, this time keeping out top scorer Andre Gray with a fine one-legged 40th-minute save. He was almost powerless to Ruddock-Mpanzu's arcing header though as Rooney caressed another superb ball into a colleague's path.

As with the rest, the former West Ham man could not find the target. Buoyed from a first-half clean sheet, the Shots started the second with renewed confidence.

A flurry of corners followed by captain Craig Stanley's effort was the visitors' best spell. Luton had managed ten goals short of a century this Skrill Premier season but just the one was proving beyond them.

Town had relied on a fluky Matt Robinson goal to set them on their way against Chester, and as the midfielder entered the fray for Ruddock-Mpanzu, the same on this aggravating afternoon would have been well received.

The crowd were certainly not deflated by the course of events. Persistent encouragement rained down from the terraces as the home side faced a nervous last 15 minutes.

Finally, Howells, thrust into the action in the final eight minutes, found the killer ball to unlock Aldershot. His right-foot cross should have been easy pickings for Morris but he fumbled into the air and Norwich loanee McGeehan nodded home. A late Mark Tyler save from a Franks shank could have forced an unlikely draw but the keeper was on hand to swot the ball over the bar. Two late corners followed but Luton survived and are now just at most six points from promotion.

Luton – Tyler; Henry (capt), McNulty, Franks, Griffiths; Lawless (Howells, 82), McGeehan, Ruddock-Mpanzu (Robinson, 68), Rooney (Cullen, 75); Gray, Benson. Subs not used – Shaw, Justham.

Aldershot – Morris; Gibbs, Oastler, Phillips, Butler; Mekki, Stanley (capt) Rowlands (Cornick, 88), Oyeleke, Molesley; Scott (Bubb, 57). Subs not used – Bubb, Roberts, Williams, Cornick, Gerrard. Attendance – 8558 (240).

Five-star Dunstable go four points clear at the summit

BY MATT DESAI

sport@lntmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE Town raced to four points clear at the top of the Southern League Division One Central on Saturday, after a romping five goal victory away to Chertsey Town.

The Blues, who were two points clear at the start of play, scored four second-half goals to ensure a comfortable 5-0 win, and leave Chertsey battling for survival as they enter the final few weeks of the season.

Ironically though, it was The Curfews who made the better start to the match, and they could have been ahead inside five minutes.

After seeing claims of a penalty waved away, David Johnston's clipped pass eventually found Sam Baffour, but his effort was well blocked.

The Blues, who are chasing back-to-back league titles, grew into the game and eventually found the breakthrough moments before half time, when the hosts' Danny Alderton gave away a penalty.

To make matters worse, the centre-back was shown a straight red card, and Adam Watkins converted coolly to give the visitors a 1-0 lead at the break.

The league leaders emerged after the interval much brighter, clearly buoyed by their goal, and on fifty-seven minutes defender Ryan Plowright struck to double their advantage.

Dunstable Town had won three in a row before yesterday's game and when Watkins added his second on seventy minutes to make it 3-0, it became clear that confidence was flowing throughout the team.

For as good as the visitors were, their Surrey hosts, who lie second from bottom, were giving them all the help they wanted.

With eight minutes remaining, they gifted The Blues a second penalty, and this time

Terry Dixon converted with aplomb.

With the match all but over, the rout was completed in the final stages, when Joe Green suffered the ignominy of putting through his own net, to round off a disappointing 5-0 defeat.

Elsewhere in the division, BARTON ROVERS recorded their fourth win in five games after a 1-0 win away to Ashford Town (Middx).

Rovers took the lead just one minute into the second-half when Keshi Anderson scored his fifth of the season.

The win means Dan Kennoy's side remain in fifth position, three points inside the play-offs.

We haven't bought the league title – John Still

LEAVING IT LATE: Cameron McGeehan turns home the winner yesterday

HATTERS

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town manager John Still says his youngsters hit back at suggestions the club have bought the title after their 1-0 win over Aldershot at Kenilworth Road yesterday.

Norwich City loanee Cameron McGeehan popped up with the 85th-minute winner, supplied by Town youth product Jake Howells, to earn the Hatters the win.

With four of the hosts' starting eleven, McGeehan, Pelly Ruddock-Mpanzu, Luke Rooney and Fraser Franks, all under the age of 24, a frustrated Still tore into sceptics.

"I listen, I read and I hear that Luton have got financial resources and it really gives me the hump," said Still.

"There are three kids in there that do not earn anything really and that is what we are trying to do here at this football club.

"We want to try and create players that will take us to the next level.

"How do these doubters know what financial resources we have?"

"I know we have hungry, ambitious players at this club and talk of us buying success angers me.

"When we lost Luke Guttridge and Jonathan Smith we could have gone out and bought established 28-year-old players but that is not how we do things at Luton Town Football Club and we showed that today."

The Hatters boss was quick to heap praise on McGeehan and his contributions in what was a surprisingly tight 1-0 victory.

"Cameron deserved his goal because he worked his socks off and gave 100 per cent like always," said the 63-year-old.

"He may be on loan but he loves it here and he is one of us. I have not thought about his future at the club beyond this season but when the time comes, we will all sit down and look at it and hopefully we can sort something."

Luton have not been at their blistering best in recent games but Still believes their returns have been exceptional nonetheless.

"People think our form has slipped a bit but in the last four games, not including today, we have amassed 2.2 points per game which is unbelievable," said Still.

"They have been really tough games and at this stage of the season that form is outstanding."

"People may argue we should be winning every game but it is never going to be like that however dominant you are so I am just pleased how we are performing now."

"Maybe we should have scored earlier than we did but credit Aldershot because they played really well."

Luton remain 13 points clear at the top of the Skrill Premier and a win against Tamworth at home on Tuesday night, followed by a defeat for Cambridge United away at Woking on Thursday, will clinch the title.

A Hatters victory midweek and another win against Braintree on Saturday will also seal glory.
